

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency & the Gila River Indian Community present:
Arizona Tribal Green Building Codes Workshop
Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, 2214 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004
Thursday, December 15, 2016 (10 AM – 2 PM)

Listen to Presentations HERE

Listen to Discussions HERE

An interactive workshop to learn and share Tribal Green Building approaches to improve community health, affordable housing, and environmental protection while advancing tribal sovereignty and community priorities.

Who Should Attend: Tribal leaders; tribal and federal housing, planning, environmental, health, and policy staff; and tribal members interested in tribal green building.

Presenters:

David Eisenberg, Executive Director, Development Center for Appropriate Technology
Tribal Green Building Overview and Tools – featuring Tribal Green Building Case Studies from Kayenta Township – Navajo Nation, Big Sandy Rancheria, Pinoleville Pomo Nation, and Spokane Tribe

Althea Walker, Education & Outreach Specialist, GRIC Dept. of Environmental Quality
Making a Visible Difference in Communities Initiative: Gila River Indian Community Tribal Green Building Project

Timonie Hood, LEED AP, Green Building Coordinator, U.S. EPA Region 9
Tribal Green Manufactured Housing Procurement - Navajo Nation Superfund Site

Background Information: Tribal Green Building Tools for Tribes

<https://www.epa.gov/green-building-tools-tribes>

For additional information contact Timonie Hood at hood.timonie@epa.gov or 415-972-3282